

Argumentative Unit

Essential Question: What is the academic definition of Argument?

Questions:

Notes:

What is an argument?

Claim supported by evidence.

How is argument different from persuasion?

Persuasion

Argument

convince that the claim is truth

convince that the Claim is truth

focus on character, authority, credibility

focus is on evidence

grounded in feelings

grounded in facts, data & logic wants the audience to take action wants the audience to think

Summary:

Questions:

Notes:

Mrs. Yost's first period English class took notes on academic arguments and listened about how to argue effectively. The most important piece of information.

The next important piece of information

The last piece of information

Mrs. Yost's purpose in teaching this lesson was to inform her class.

Summary: