THE LIGHTNING THIEF: CHAPTERS 1 & 2

Strategy Focus: Understanding Greek Mythology

In order to understand what you are reading, you will be introduced to some of the Olympian Gods and Goddesses of Greek Mythology.

Zeus: King of the Greek Gods and Goddesses

Zeus is usually represented as an older, vigorous bearded man. His symbol is the thunderbolt. He is highly powerful, strong, charming, and persuasive. Zeus is King of the Gods of Mount Olympus and has a beautiful wife Hera. Zeus is a creator god who is sometimes considered to be too friendly to humankind by his peers.

---

---

Strategy Focus: Extending the Text

For this focus, you do not have to write anything down.
All you need to do is think about it and be ready to share.

Share a time when you were part of some bad weather. What did you do? Where were you?

Good readers will think about what they are reading...

Percy is forced to leave Yancy Academy with Grover. Describe the bus ride, the conversation with the two boys, and what Percy saw out the window. Write your answer on the "bus" below.

Chapters 3 and 4

Strategy Focus: Understanding Greek Mythology

In order to understand what you are reading, you will be introduced to some of the Olympian Gods and Goddesses of Greek Mythology.

Hades: King of the Dead; Lord of the Underworld

Like Zeus, Hades is usually represented as a vigorous bearded man. Hades was born to the Great Mother goddess Rhea and Kronos (Father Time) on the island of Crete, along with his brothers Zeus and Poseidon. Hades sprung out of the earth and captured Persephone, dragging her off to be his queen in the Underworld. Her mother Demeter searched for her and stopped all foods from growing until Persephone was returned. Finally, a deal was worked out where Persephone stayed one-third of the year with Hades, one-third of the year serving as a handmaiden to Zeus at Mount Olympus, and one-third with her mother.

STRATEGY FOCUS: COMPARE AND CONTRAST

Good readers will compare and contrast ideas while they are reading to help them better comprehend the story. As you learn more about Percy's mom and step-dad, compare and contrast the two. Try to have at least two descriptions in each of the three sections.

SALLY JACKSON

GABE

What supposedly happened to Percy's dad?

---

---

---

---

Why do you think Percy's mom put up with Gabe?

---

---

---

Why was Percy always forced to move as a child? Remember to use evidence from the text when answering the question.

Chapters 5 and 6

Strategy Focus: Understanding Greek Mythology

In order to understand what you are reading, you will be introduced to some of the Olympian Gods and Goddesses of Greek Mythology.

Poseidon: God of the Sea, Earthquakes, and Horses

Although Poseidon was officially one of the supreme gods of Mount Olympus, he spent most of his time in his watery domain. Poseidon was a brother to Zeus and Hades. These three gods divided up creation. Zeus was ruler of the sky, Hades had dominion of the Underworld, and Poseidon was given all water, both fresh and salt.

Good readers use background knowledge to better comprehend...

What did Percy discover about Grover?

---

---

STRATEGY FOCUS: CHARACTER TRAITS

Good readers are able to identify unique or important details about the characters they are reading about. Dionysus explained to Percy that the gods were very much alive and that they did not like it when their names were used. He also explained about immortality and how he was punished by his father for being with a wood nymph. Describe Dionysus (physical appearance and personal qualities).

Strategy Focus: Understanding Greek Mythology
 In order to understand what you are reading, you will be introduced to some of the Olympian Gods and Goddesses of Greek Mythology.

Artemis: Goddess of Wild Things
 Artemis is physically strong, able to defend herself, and a defender and guardian of wildlife. Artemis is a freedom-loving young woman who likes to roam the forests with her female companions. She doesn't care for city life and keeps to the natural, wild environment.

Good readers use background knowledge to better comprehend...

STRATEGY FOCUS: COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS

As you read chapters 7-8, answer the questions below by putting one letter per box. Note: Some boxes may not be used. After answering all of the questions, unscramble the letters in the shaded boxes to answer the Bonus Question.

Annabeth told Percy that his _____ wasn't dead- in fact he was one of the gods.

Annabeth believed the gods were angry because something was stolen from them. If what was stolen wasn't returned by the _____ solstice, then there would be trouble.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Percy found out through Luke that Annabeth wanted to go on a _____ and thought he might be "the one" she had been waiting for to go with.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

At camp, Percy would rotate through outdoor activities, canoe, and take _____ fighting lessons.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

During the sword fighting duel with Luke, Percy was able to knock Luke's sword away and point his sword at Luke's _____.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

The "Big Three" (Zeus, _____, and Hades) decided after World War II that they would not have any more "heroes" (children) to stop wars from happening.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Bonus Question: Now unscramble the shaded letters to form a word that fits in the following blank space. The Greek God Hermes was known as the God of _____ and Troubleshooting.

Describe what happened to Percy during and after "capture the flag". What did everyone realize about Percy after the game?

---

---

---

---

---

---

STRATEGY FOCUS: EXTENDING THE TEXT

Good readers will extend the meaning of what they are reading. "Capture the Flag" is a traditional outdoor sport, generally played by children, where two teams have a flag (or other marker). The objective is to capture the other team's flag, located at the team's "base", and bring it safely back to their own "base". On the "flag" to the left, design a flag that you think Percy would have had for his team. On the "flag" to the right, explain how your design relates to the story.

Two large, empty rectangular boxes with wavy, wave-like top and bottom edges. They are positioned side-by-side, separated by a vertical line. These are intended for a student to draw a flag on the left and write an explanation on the right.

Strategy Focus: Extending the Text For this focus, you do not have to write anything down. All you need to do is think about it and be ready to share.	A stack of five books of varying thicknesses, drawn in a simple, sketchy style.
Have you ever played "capture the flag"? If so, how did it turn out? If not, does it sound like a game that you would want to participate in?

Chapters 9 and 10

Strategy Focus: Understanding Greek Mythology

In order to understand what you are reading, you will be introduced to some of the Olympian Gods and Goddesses of Greek Mythology.

Athena: Goddess of Wisdom

Athena was a young woman who wore a helmet and held a shield, often accompanied by a small owl. Athena was rational, intelligent, and a powerful defender in war, but she was also a potent peacemaker. According to one story, she was born fully-armed because her father Zeus swallowed her mother, Metis, while she was pregnant. Although Athena was Zeus's daughter, she would also oppose his plans and conspire against him.

What cabin did Percy move to? What did he think of his new cabin?

---

---

---

What was in the "New York Daily News"? What was Percy's reaction? Write your response on the "newspaper" below.

Strategy Focus: Extending the Text

For this focus, you do not have to write anything down. All you need to do is think about it and be ready to share.

If you were in the newspaper for something that you have accomplished, what would it be?

Good readers will think about what they are reading...

What was going on with the gods and a lightning bolt?

What are the four statements that the Oracle said to Percy?

What was Percy's quest?

---

---

Who accompanied Percy on his quest? Why couldn't Percy take an airplane to get to Los Angeles?

---

---

---

STRATEGY FOCUS: UNDERSTANDING DETAILS

On each of the "suitcases" below, write down what each person (Percy, Annabeth, and Grover) decided to take on the quest.

PERCY

ANNABETH

GROVER

---

---

Strategy Focus: Extending the Text
For this focus, you do not have to write anything down.
All you need to do is think about it and be ready to share.

If you received the same gift from Luke that Percy received, what would you do with them? Would you keep them or give them to someone else?

Good readers will think about what they are reading...

What did Chiron give Percy? Who could Percy only use it on? Why?

---

---

Why aren't Percy and Annabeth supposed to get along?

---

---

---

STRATEGY FOCUS: UNDERSTANDING DETAILS

Describe in detail the encounter with the Furies on the bus. You should have at least three sentences. Write your details on the "bus" below.

Strategy Focus: Understanding Greek Mythology

In order to understand what you are reading, you will be introduced to some of the Olympian Gods and Goddesses of Greek Mythology.

Demeter: Goddess of Agriculture

Demeter is a pleasant-looking mature woman and controls the fertility of the earth as goddess of Agriculture and also gives life after death to those who learn her mysteries. Demeter is not one to cross lightly. After the kidnapping of her daughter Persephone, Demeter blights the earth and won't let the plants grow. But who can blame her? Zeus gave Hades permission to "marry" Persephone but didn't mention it to her mom- oops!

Strategy Focus: Extending the Text

For this focus, you do not have to write anything down. All you need to do is think about it and be ready to share.

Percy ate one of Aunty Em's irresistible hamburgers. What kind of food do you find irresistible?

Good readers will think about what they are reading...

What did Percy put in the box and where was he going to send it to?

Four horizontal lines for writing an answer to the question above.

Chapters 11 and 12

Why does Grover want a searcher's license?

---

---

---

---

STRATEGY FOCUS: EXTENDING THE TEXT

For this activity, you are asked to design a license for Grover. Your license should include a picture, a few details about Grover, and what the license could be used for.

Strategy Focus: Extending the Text

For this focus, you do not have to write anything down. All you need to do is think about it and be ready to share.

Grover wanted a "searcher's" license.
What kind of license would you find helpful?

STRATEGY FOCUS: SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

Good readers understand the order of events to better understand what they are reading. Put the events in order for happened to Percy at the Gateway Arch and when he fell into the river. A "1" would be the earliest event, a "2" the next, and so on.

- ___ A hole was burned in the arch and Percy was forced to jump from the Arch into the river. His impact with the water didn't hurt. He wasn't wet, and he could breathe underwater.
- ___ Percy heard a woman's voice and was able to retrieve his sword. The lady told him to go to Santa Monica. She told him not to trust the gifts and that his father believed in him.
- ___ Percy was left alone at the top of the Arch with a lady and her dog, as Grover and Annabeth went down the full elevator.
- ___ The Chihuahua turned into Chimera and the lady turned into Echnida. A battle ensued in which Percy was attacked.
