

Fahrenheit 451: Comparison and Contrast (novel/movie)

Characters:

- How do the characters' personalities and appearances differ between the book and the movie?
- Which character was developed more deeply in the book compared to the movie, and why?

Plot:

- Were there any major plot points removed or added in the movie adaptation?
- Which plot twists were more impactful in the movie compared to the book?

Setting:

- How does the visual representation of the setting in the movie compare to how you imagined it while reading the book?
- Were there any significant changes to the setting's details or atmosphere in the movie adaptation?

Themes:

- Which themes are emphasized more prominently in the movie compared to the book?
- How does the visual storytelling in the movie enhance or alter the central themes of the story?

Key Scenes:

- Which key scenes from the book were significantly changed or omitted in the movie?
- How does the emotional impact of a particular scene differ between the book and the movie?

Dialogue:

- Does the dialogue in the movie closely resemble the dialogue in the book?
- Are there any significant changes to the way characters express themselves in the movie adaptation?

Ending:

- How does the movie's ending compare to the book's ending?
- Which ending do you find more satisfying and why?

Overall Impression:

- Which version of the story did you enjoy more and why?
- Do you think the movie adaptation captured the essence of the book?